Your guide to the words or phrases used to explain your benefits

Coinsurance

The percentage of the cost that you may need to pay for a covered service.

Common coinsurance maximum

The limit on the coinsurance you will have to spend for specified covered health services (a combination of both in and out-of-plan services) in a calendar year. Copayments, some services and expenses do not apply to the common coinsurance maximum. See your Member Handbook for details.

Common deductible

The dollar amount that an individual or family pays for covered services before your plan pays any benefits within a calendar year. The deductible can be met by using in-plan or out-of-plan providers, or the combination of both. The following expenses do not apply to an individual or family deductible:

- Services not covered by your plan
- Fees that exceed usual, customary and reasonable (UCR) charges as established by your plan
- Penalties incurred if you do not follow your plan's prior authorization requirements
- Copays or coinsurance for any supplemental benefits provided by your employer, such as prescription drugs, or routine vision care Copav

The fixed dollar amount you pay to a health care provider for a covered service at the time care is provided.

Deductible carrvover

A feature of your plan that allows for any portion of your deductible that is paid during the fourth quarter of a calendar year to be applied toward the next year's deductible.

Formulary

A list of preferred brand-name and generic drugs that have been evaluated by us for effectiveness and safety.

In-plan benefit

The in-plan benefit is an extensive network of highly gualified physicians and health care providers, also known as participating providers, available to you by your plan. Generally, your out-of-pocket costs will be less when you receive covered services from participating providers. To find a participating provider, go to www.ProvidenceHealthPlan.com/providerdirectory.

Non-participating provider

Any health care professional who does not participate in Providence Health Plan's network of participating physicians and providers of health care services.

Out-of-plan

Refers to services you receive from a non-participating provider. Your out-of-pocket costs are generally higher when you receive covered services from non-participating providers. To find a participating provider, go to www.ProvidenceHealthPlan.com/providerdirectory.

Participating provider

A physician or provider of health care services who belongs to the Providence Health Plan participating provider network. To find a participating provider, refer to the directory available at www.ProvidenceHealthPlan.com/providerdirectory.

Pre-existing condition exclusion

A pre-existing condition is any medical condition for which medical advice, diagnosis, care or treatment was recommended or received within six months prior to your enrollment date. Coverage for pre-existing conditions is excluded for a period of six months following your enrollment date. This exclusion period can be reduced by gualifying Creditable Coverage. The pre-existing condition exclusion does not apply to members who are under the age of 19. See your Member Handbook for details.

Prior authorization

Some services must be pre-approved. In-Plan, your provider will request prior authorization. Out-of-Plan, you are responsible for obtaining prior authorization.

Self-administered chemotherapy

Oral, topical or self-injectable medications that are used to stop or slow the growth of cancerous cells.

Usual, Customary & Reasonable (UCR)

Describes your plan's allowed charges for services that you receive from an out-of-plan provider. When the cost of out-of-plan services exceeds UCR amounts, you are responsible for paying the provider any difference. These amounts do not apply to your out-of-pocket maximums.
